

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, teenage residents of our community represent an important but under-appreciated segment of the population; and

WHEREAS, the teen years comprise the transitional stages of human development from childhood to adulthood; and

WHEREAS, during these transitions, teenagers need and deserve the community's understanding, guidance and support; and

WHEREAS, the creativity, energy and passion of adolescents often help to refresh our culture and constructively challenge our ideas, to the benefit of our society; and

WHEREAS, negative publicity about teenagers often overshadows community awareness of their overwhelming accomplishments and positive contributions to the life of our community and society,

NOW, THEREFORE, with the power vested in me by the Township Board, I hereby proclaim the week of August 12 through August 18, 2007, to be "Teen Appreciation Week" throughout the Township of Schaumburg, Cook County, Illinois, and urge all members of the community to join in demonstrating this appreciation during that week and throughout the year.
